

Our book club aims to provide a welcoming, inclusive and respectful environment for all members. We encourage open discussion and recognise that people may have different opinions, interpretations and experiences.

Some books and discussions may contain sensitive, mature or potentially distressing themes. Where appropriate, content warnings will be provided, and members are always free to step away from a discussion if they feel uncomfortable.

Members are expected to treat one another with respect. Personal attacks, harassment, discrimination, bullying or threatening behaviour will not be tolerated. Please be mindful that topics discussed in books may have personal significance to others.

Everyone is welcome to participate at their own comfort level, and differing opinions are encouraged as long as they are expressed respectfully.
